From a handful of members at its inception in 1987, the HKABA has a strong and growing membership of 1000 across Australia and in Hong Kong. Our membership profile cuts across various industries and services sectors. The trading sector is the largest group, followed by legal services and transportation. Other major membership groups include accounting, business consultancy, real estate, retail, education, media, internet and travel and tourism.

Membership is open to business executives, enterprises, academics, students and other who have an interest in developing a business relationship between Australia and Hong Kong SAR/China. Membership is available on a corporate or individual basis.

The HKABA has strong institutional connections with Hong Kong. Our major supporter is the Hong Kong Trade Development Council. Our major sponsors are The Hong Kong Trade Development Council, The Hong Kong Economic and Trade Office which is the Hong Kong SAR Government's official representative in Australia, InvestHK and the Hong Kong Tourism Board.
